

2008-2009
FILIPINO-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION of CPAs
Accounting Scholarship

The Filipino-American Association of CPAs scholarship program is now accepting applications for $750 scholarships. This year's scholarships will be awarded for use beginning fall quarter 2008 at any 2- or 4-year institution in Washington State.

Eligibility: All vocational, community college and university transfer accounting students who have completed two quarters of accounting at the time of application and who plan to complete their education in Washington state are eligible to apply. Previous awardees are also eligible. All applicants must be U.S. citizens, or have applied for citizenship.

Deadline: Completed applications and other required documents should be mailed by April 15, 2008 to:

Filipino-American Association of CPAs
c/o Ralph and Guia Villavicencio, CPAs
516 Sixth Street South, Suite 107
Kirkland, WA 98033

Unofficial college transcripts are acceptable.

Selection

Criteria: The Filipino-American Association of CPAs will screen all applications received and select the finalists based on:

- 1) academic achievement (minimum 3.0 GPA)
- 2) campus and/or community activities
- 3) preparation for an accounting career
- 4) work history and financial need
- 5) personal statement
- 6) two letters of recommendation
(see required attachments listed on application)

Renewal: To be considered for up to three additional $750 annual awards, previous years' award recipients must re-apply each year and continue to meet selections criteria. Renewal scholarships will be awarded based on applicant continued eligibility.

Applications for the scholarship are enclosed. Please make additional photocopies as necessary for your colleagues and students. If you have questions, please call Guia Villavicencio at (425) 576-1021.
